ANNOUNCEMENTS.

IN OBEDIENCE TO THE CALL OF MANY VOTERS OF HARDEMAN COUNTY, THE UNDERSIGNED HEREBY ANNOUNCES HIMSELF A CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION TO THE OFFICE OF SHERIFF OF HARDEMAN COUNTY AT THE COMING MARCH ELECTION.

W. W. McCARLEY.

This the 18th day of Nov., 1867.

For Register.

We are authorized to announce that A. H. Anderson, Esq., a candidate for re-election in the office of Register of Harde- man County, died in March, 1867.

For Trustee.

We are authorized to announce Joseph Watson, present- ing himself, a candidate for the office of Trustee of Harde- man County. Election in March next.

For Tax Collector.

J. H. WELCH.—Yielding to the earnest solicitation of his numerous friends, he has consented to announce him a candi- date for the office of Tax Collector of Hardeman County. Election first Saturday in March, 1867.

Railroad Time Table.

" Mon. Morn."—For superior lime, go to Bills & Hill.

Devise Service.—Rev. W. E. Faust will preach at the Baptist church in Bolivar on the 4th Saturday of the present month.

Clothing, Clothing, Clothing.—At Bills & Hill's cash store.

STUDEN DEATH.—E. A. Randolph, who has been superintending the mills of C. H. Anderson, Esq., on Spring creek, was taken suddenly ill last Thursday evening, and died the following night. He leaves a family and many friends to mourn his taking off.

LIME, LIME—100 lbs. lime, price $3.50, at the store of Bills & Hill.

The rumor that has to some extent spread over the county to the effect that President Johnson had called out a large number of men for the protection of the constitution and the laws is incorrect. Some mischievous person started the fabrication. All wrong. No truth in the rum or whatever.

DURAW, N.Y.—Southern made Jeans cotton yarn and plaid at Bills & Hill's cash store. The best goods in the market.

WHAT'S YOUR DOG?—Newt, Clark, of Salisbury, proposes to make a wager of $100 that he has a cur dog that can whip any specimen of the canine species in Harde- man County. Who will take up the banner? Correspond with Newt, or call on him in person, and you will find out that he is in earnest.

KEEP YOUR FEET DRY.—Best assortment of boots and shoes in Bolivar just received at the store of Bills & Hill.

BOLIVAR HIGH SCHOOL.—See the card in the following school in another column. We hope to see its halls well filled during the coming session. The Principal is leaving nothing undone to place this school ahead of all competitors. For thoroughness in the various branches taught he is determined that his pupils shall not be excelled. Mr. Bill's, the present Assistant, will be retained. He has given sufficient satisfaction in his department, and we congratulate the Principal on securing the services of one so competent to fill the position. Mr. Bill's was educated at Princeton College and graduated at that respectable institution in "class 67."

STRANGE DEATH.—Last Saturday night a most singular event transpired in this county. An old and well-known gentleman, who resided about two miles north east of Bolivar, died in the following manner: Mr. Sullivan, who had attained the age of 86 years, as usual, did a good day's work on Saturday. At night he went to his home, a large double log house, ate a hearty meal, and, seemingly in the best of health, retired to rest. About midnight he rose from his bed, crossed the wide hall that separated the two rooms, woke up the members of the family and told them that he was dying, at the same time slinking hands with each one of the inmates and bidding them a final farewell; he then went back to the room from whence he came, woke up his grandson, shook hands with him and told him also that he was dying; after so doing he seated himself in a chair, his features quickly underwent a change, his limbs relaxed, while a thick film gathered over his eyes. He was taken from the chair and placed near the bed by his son, but when the spirit of the old man had forever fled from its enshrine of clay. His only remark, after bidding the family farewell, was that he seemed to be choking. What a mystery is life, how strange is death!

Louisiana Molasses, new crop, at the one price cash house of Bills & Hill. Good article, very cheap.

C. H. ANDERSON, Esq.—We are glad to announce to our readers and the public generally the gratifying fact that this efficient and well-known gentleman is a candidate for re-election to the office of Register of Harde- man county. Esquire Anderson is the man for the position, and we feel confident that the people of this county, always appreciative, will retain the present incumbent at the ensuing election. Besides possessing the practical ability for the office, the gentlemen has the unbounded confidence of all who know him.

LIGHT.—The purest and best article of coal oil can be procured at the cash house of Bills & Hill.

DEPARTED.—We are sorry to inform our readers that "Jenkins," our friend "Jenkins," in fact, the Jenkins that we all admired so much, is no more! He was foolish enough to attempt to make the crossing of one of our principal streets last Thursday night, missed his foothold, fell into a hole, yes, a mud hole, and, in consequence, was lost, lost, lost! "Jenkins" was a man, not that man, but another man;

His life was gentle; and the elements So mixed in him, that nature might stand up, And say to all the world—"This is a man."

But "Jenkins" our Jenkins has gone!

After he'd naut never sleep well,

Rust-a-cat in peace! Salath!

A LUXURY.—Best Rio Coffe at Bills & Hill's popular one price store.

MILLIONS IN GOLD.—By reference to a legal advertisement which appears in this issue of the Bulletin, it will be seen that A. T. Stewart & Co. of New York are "buck- ing" at Mack & Bros. of Cincinnati, and others. We are surprised that the parties named, being in such indigent (!) circumstances should go to luring, and we greatly fear, let the case go which way it will, that our printer's clerk's and sheriff's fees can never be collected—but both parties are so poor! Lay on McDuff, etc.

Larger lot of lamps, all kinds, at Bills & Hill's.

Read the advertisement in another column, of the BOLIVAR FEMALE ACADEMY. This excellent school is now under the entire control of Miss Galloway, and Mrs. H. Nelson. It is needless for us to speak of the superior abilities of these ladies. Their past success in teaching the young idea to shoot is a sure guarantee of the success awaiting their efforts in the future.

Special Notices.

All persons indebted to J. R. Brown are hereby notified that they need not put themselves to any trouble to settle, as I will give them the amount. I have lost more time with delinquents than would be necessary to make a small fortune. Hereafter I will be found in my shop ready to work for cash and nothing else. I am bound to pay my debts, so don't ask for credit, nor don't send word without the money, as we will be turned.

THAT BAD COUGH.—Death is near at hand—disease now prevails upon your vital. Your cough has become so severe, your lungs fail to perform their proper function. Remember how easily you take cold, and how much you have neglected your cough. If you will take honest advice, send and procure one bottle of Druggists & Co.'s Amygdalin Pectoral; it is a beautiful, a delightful Southern preparation for all diseases of the Lungs, Conges, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Pneumonia, Pleurisy, pain in the side, etc, are speedily relieved. It enables you to sleep well at night. Call on your druggist. C. M. O'Hara, agent, Bolivar.

DR. GRANT'S PRIVATE LETTER TO PRESIDENT JOHNSON.—The undersigned would have the citizens of Bolivar and the adjacent country know that he is prepared to do all kinds of job work in his line, such as grate setting, plastering, and brickwork, with neatness and despatch. Address C. R. Trigg, Post Office box 84, Bolivar, Tenn. Jan 1st.

PASTOR.—The second drawing of the Southern Auction Lottery, which was to come off at Hernando, Miss., on the 3d Monday of October, has been postponed for a short time. Due notice will be given of the day on which the drawing of numbers is to take place. In the mean time let all persons who wish to test their luck call upon C. M. O'Hara and procure tickets.
